

Harvard Model United Nations 2019

Country Assignments

The table below includes all countries represented at HMUN 2019 in the General Assembly (GA), Regional Bodies (RB), and Specialized Agencies (SA). A separate table on the reverse side includes all countries represented in the Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC). All relevant committees are listed below, with the number of delegates allotted per delegation denoted after the name of each committee. Note that all delegation assignments include at least one flex committee, which may accommodate either one or two delegates. These committees are the Special Political and Decolonization Committee and the Commission on the Status of Women. All 193 UN member-states are represented in GA committees, except for the Historical General Assembly, High-Level Meeting on East Asian Security, and International Organization for Migration. Character assignments for our national legislature committee, the Indian Parliament, will be tied to the countries represented in NATO and UNESCAP. GA/RB/SA delegations range in size from 10 to 25 delegates. ECOSOC delegations may be 7 or 8 delegates in size. The Specialized Application (for all committees not listed here) will open on June 6, 2018, and due on September 26, 2018.
