

Harvard Model United Nations 2017

Country Assignments

The table below includes all countries represented at HMUN 2017 in the General Assembly (GA), Regional Bodies (RB), and Specialized Agencies (SA). A separate table on the reverse side includes all countries represented in the Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC). All relevant committees are listed below, with the number of delegates allotted per delegation denoted after the name of each committee. Note that all delegation assignments include at least one flex committee, which may accommodate either one or two delegates. These committees are the Special Political and Decolonization Committee, the UN Environment Assembly, and the UN Office for Outer Space Affairs. All 193 UN member-states are represented in General Assembly committees, with the exception of the World Trade Organization and the UN Environment Assembly, which seat representatives from 180 and 70 member-states, respectively. GA/RB/SA delegations range in size from 9 to 24 delegates. ECOSOC delegations may be 7 or 8 delegates in size. Special applications (for all committees not listed hereafter) will be available on June 8, 2016, and due on September 28, 2016.
