Harvard Model United Nations is one of America's oldest, largest, and most prestigious model United Nations conferences. Founded in 1927 as Harvard Model League of Nations, HMUN builds upon decades of experience. Our staff annually hosts 3,000 high school students from over 30 countries at the Sheraton Boston for a weekend of debate, diplomacy, and cultural exchange. As undergraduate students committed to promoting international awareness and the practice of international diplomacy, we lead HMUN with strong effort, dedication, and skill in the goal of continuing our conference tradition as the premier Model United Nations conference in the World.
